Governance Team of the Year (GTOY) 2023

This is the first step in the 2023 GTOY process. The below screening questionnaire is directly aligned to the Standards for Effective Governance Teams.

Each district's completed questionnaire will be reviewed by the GSBA Review Team to determine the three finalists in each classification who best meet minimum requirements. Each standard under each domain must be met in order to be considered. The three finalists in each classification will be eligible to complete the GTOY Application.

Please select which Awards Program you would like to apply for below.

NOTE: Not all programs will be open year round.

School System (please write the full name of your school system)

For a district to be considered for GTOY, the district must have received GSBA Exemplary Board recognition for the two prior consecutive years.

The first step in the 2023 GTOY process is to complete this GTOY Screening Questionnaire and to provide documentation as required. The GTOY Screening Questionnaire is directly aligned to the Standards for Effective Governance Teams.

Each district's completed questionnaire will be reviewed by the GSBA Review Team to determine the three finalists in each classification who best meet minimum requirements. Each standard under each domain must be met in order to be considered. The three finalists in each classification will be eligible to complete the GTOY Application.

The second step in the process is for each finalist to complete the GTOY Application. The GTOY Application will focus on the work of the governance team. Each governance team member will be expected to understand the application questions, participate in crafting each response, and be able to elaborate on each answer during the interview if asked to do so.

Completed applications and questionnaires must be signed by each member of the governance team reflecting agreement with the answers provided.

Completed GTOY Questionnaires will be scored by a team of GSBA Raters who will determine the 3 finalists in each category – large, medium and small districts.

Completed GTOY Applications and Interviews will be judged by outside raters who will select the winners in each category – large, medium and small districts.

Please note:

- Questions where files need to be uploaded only allow a single document to be uploaded
- All links must be direct links to the document or evidence we are asking for
- All information and documents must be submitted through Award Force- emailed or mailed documents will not be accepted.
- No late submissions will be accepted

- If you need clarification regarding content of the question, call Dr. Steve Barker (404-392-7483) or Lynita Jackson (770-318-5086).
- If you have trouble uploading documentation or other technical issues, call Stephanie Motter (770-822-3633)

Suggested steps prior to completing the questionnaire:

- The superintendent should review each question to confirm that all minimum requirements have been met.
- The superintendent and board chair should review the questionnaire to see if they are both in agreement that all minimum requirements have been met.
- The superintendent and/or board chair should explain the GTOY process to each board member before completing the questionnaire.
- The superintendent or designee should complete the questionnaire and attach all supporting documents including each individual board member's questionnaire response forms (the last item on the questionnaire requiring documents)
- Submission deadline is Thursday, January 5, 2023. No late submissions will be accepted.
